

Best of the rest

Wednesday

PROBUS CLUB

Come along and hear the inspirational story of mother Karen Key talking about her son Aaron's journey at Georges River Riverwood Probus. Every month we have walks, lunches, we go to all of the top shows, have trips away and bus trips. Visitors and new members always welcome.

Details: Meet at Club Rivers, 10.15am. Call Craig 9584 8913 for information

TAI CHI FOR SENIORS

Tai chi is a gentle exercise originating in China that helps to improve your flexibility, strength and balance. Canterbury Bankstown residents over the age of 55 are welcome to join this weekly class.

Details: 12.30pm-1.30pm, Campsie Library, 14-28 Amy Street, Campsie. No bookings required. Call 9789 9424 for information

LION KING ON STAGE

The Regals Musical Society's production of Disney The Lion King Jr is coming to Rockdale Town Hall these school holidays, opening on Friday and running until October 6. The abridged 90-minute musical, designed for young audiences and adults alike, features two young casts, wonderful costumes and cleverly designed puppets. Seventeen of the cast come from Canterbury Bankstown including Picnic Point's Jensen Mazza as Young Simba.

September 27-October 6, Rockdale Town Hall. Tickets: $35/$25 from theregals.com.au

Alissandra Alvarez and Jensen Mazza.

Thursday

PRAYERS FOR PEACE

The Canterbury-Bankstown Interfaith Reference Group invites residents to its annual International Multi-faith Prayers for Peace and support the signing of the Declaration Pledge of Solidarity. The event includes an Aboriginal smoking ceremony, short prayers for peace by leaders of Baha'i, Buddhist, Christian, Hindu, Interfaith, Jewish, Muslim and other faiths, youth choir performances and also supper.

Details: 6.30pm-8pm, Punchbowl Community Centre. Call Reverend Heather Topp on 0481 357 776

Weekend

SIMON AND GARFUNKEL

Simon and Garfunkel – The Concert, starring Mark Shelley and John Robertson, is inspired by the original artists remarkable reunion concert in Central Park, New York.

Details: 8.30pm, Saturday, Revesby Workers Club. Tickets: $25 from rwc.org.au

PRINCE EXPERIENCE

The Prince Experience celebrates the 35th anniversary of Prince's Grammy Award-winning Purple Rain album and film. Featuring the seven-piece

Purple Doves band. Hear When the Doves Cry, Kiss and more.

Details: 8pm, Saturday, Paragon Room, Canterbury League Club. Tickets: Members $8, visitors $13 from canterbury.com.au

Upcoming

CIRCUS AND MAGIC SHOW

This show is for the young, and the young at heart. Featuring ventriloquist and puppeteer Peter Wood, international award-winning magician Jowl Howlett, and Miss Jasmine Brophy from the famous Brophy Circus Family.

Details: 1.30pm, Tuesday, October 1, The Theatre, Bankstown Sports. Tickets: Members $5, non-members $7 from bankstownsports.com

WILDLIFE DISPLAYS

Starting on Monday, September 30, at Bankstown Library, head to one of your local libraries for a fascinating display of some of our nation's favourite wildlife.

Details: 10am-11am, September 30, Bankstown Library and also noon-1pm, Chester Hill Library; 10am-11am, October 4, Campsie Library and also noon-1pm, Riverwood Library.