

Flying carpet to love, adventure

BASED on the iconic animated film, with an Academy Award-winning score and starring local youth from Georges Hall, Revesby, Padstow and Bangor, Disney Aladdin Jr is sure to send you soaring on a flying carpet ride filled with romance and adventure when it debuts this Friday night.

When the street urchin, Aladdin, vies for the attention of the beautiful princess, Jasmine, he uses a genie's magic power to become a prince in order to marry her, but it is their shared desire for freedom that unites them.

Iago, Jafar, the Genie and more are here in Disney Aladdin Jr, a musical adventure filled with magic, mayhem and the power of love.

Now the Regals Musical Society, a community-based musical theatre group, prepares to take you on that wonderful journey!

Disney Aladdin Jr showcases a cast of young people all under the age of 18, with two casts rehearsing for this show; the Genies cast consists of children aged 7-12 years, and the Royals cast is 13-18 years old.

ternate shows, opening with the Royals cast and closing with the Genie cast. There are 44 children in the Genies cast, and 34 children in the Royals cast.

First time Musical Director and Georges Hall resident Stacey Wilson, whose daughter Kate is in the ensemble, said: "These young performers have brought passion and dedication along with astounding talent to their roles."

Kate said: "I have enjoyed being part of Aladdin Jr because I learned some great new songs and dances."

Revesby's Liam Carr who performs as the Sultan said: "People should come to see me. Lol! Aladdin Jr is such a great musical; we might be young, but we sure will entertain you!"
