From the President

On behalf of The Regals Musical Society Inc. I would like to welcome you to our 70th Anniversary celebrations.

We are very excited to bring you the NSW amateur premiere of Chitty Chitty Bang Bang. It has been a fantastic challenge and incredibly rewarding. It's great to see a lovely blend of Regals members and newcomers in this cast and crew. Having attended the rehearsals over the last 5 months and seeing the production develop and mature, I am incredibly proud of what has been produced for you tonight.

I would like to thank our production team, the cast, crew and committee for your dedication to this production and The Regals.

In our 70th year we would love to celebrate with as many current and former Regals members as possible.

We have a 70th Anniversary Gala on the 14th of November. The details will be available soon.

If you know where we can track down any of our previous members, please let me know via www.theregals.com.au

Thank you for taking Chitty Chitty Bang Bang for a test drive. I hope you have a fantasmagorical time with our Fine Four Fendered Friend.

Cheers, Paul

Paul Morrison
